DOUBLE-ENTRY JOURNAL ASSIGNMENT

Assignment Directions and Grading:

For this assignment, you must choose a book from the list on the previous page. You will complete a double-entry journal while reading. You must have a total of at least 20 entries in your journal. This assignment will be worth 100 points. Each entry will be worth a total of 5 points. See the example below for the breakdown. Additionally, please use BLUE or BLACK INK to complete your work (no pencil). Please staple both the Summer Reading Choice Novel Information Sheet/Permission Slip and this assignment sheet to your work.

Double-entry Journal Formatting, Requirements, and Example:

A double-entry journal is a great way to keep a record of your thoughts and reactions to what you’re reading to engage more deeply with a text or story. Thoughts can include reactions/comments, questions, connections, theme analysis, inferences/predictions, etc. Summaries are not allowed. Format your journal as such:

From the Text	My Thoughts
On this side of the journal, you will record exactly what it is that is written in the text that caught your attention. You may use ellipses (...) if necessary. Indicate the page from which the text was taken. (1 point per entry) For example (from The River King by Alice Hoffman): “It was true that devotion could be lost as quickly as it was found, which was why some people insisted that love letters be written in ink. How easy it was for even the sweetest words to evaporate, only to be rewritten as impulse and infatuation might dictate. How unfortunate that love could not be taught or trained, like a seal or a dog.” page 234	On this side of the journal, write down what it is you thought when you read the selection of text you wrote down in the opposite column. (4 points per entry) For example: This is so true!!! How often do people fall in and out of love with one another? Why is it that we think we’re in love until something, or someone, else better comes along? How do we really know what love is, then? DO NOT summarize or paraphrase the quotation. Tell me your thoughts!

To create your double-entry journal, simply fold a sheet of loose-leaf paper in half length-wise. Label the left-hand column “From the Text” and the right-hand column “My Thoughts.” Please do not submit your entries in a notebook.

Some suggestions for “My Thoughts:”

- ✓ Describe and explain your reactions to a character, event, or idea you confronted in your reading.
- ✓ Ask questions about the section you read either for clarification or analysis. Has anything in that section caused you confusion? Disbelief? Anger? Ask one of the characters in the book a question, or ask the author a question!
- ✓ Pretend you are one of the characters in the book. Get inside that character’s mind. Tell how the character feels about him/her-self, about other characters, or about the situation in the section you’re reading.
- ✓ Identify a message (theme) the author is trying to send using the story. Why did the author write this book?
- ✓ Relate something in the book, either a character or an event, to something outside of the book. You could make personal connections, connections to other books, connections to something in history or the present time, or connections to movies/films.
- ✓ Make predictions about what will happen next or make an educated guess about why a character does what he/she does.
