

Name: _____ Block: _____

Date: _____

Unit 1: Narrative Elements

---

“The Cask of Amontillado” by Edgar Allan Poe: SCR
adapted from Holt McDougal Literature: Grade 9

Introduction: The overall mood of Poe’s story is sinister. When something is described as sinister, that means it is ominous – or threatening. One might say it’s evil. How does Poe achieve this mood? He gives us an evil character: Montresor.

Directions: In a well-written paragraph, explain how the overall sinister mood of “The Cask of Amontillado” is created mainly by Montresor’s diabolical thoughts, feelings, and actions.

COMPLETE YOUR WORK ON A SEPARATE SHEET OF PAPER.

Ms. Muhlbaier

Language Arts

Name: _____ Block: _____

Date: _____

Unit 1: Narrative Elements

---

“The Cask of Amontillado” by Edgar Allan Poe: SCR
adapted from Holt McDougal Literature: Grade 9

Introduction: The overall mood of Poe’s story is sinister. When something is described as sinister, that means it is ominous – or threatening. One might say it’s evil. How does Poe achieve this mood? He gives us an evil character: Montresor.

Directions: In a well-written paragraph, explain how the overall sinister mood of “The Cask of Amontillado” is created mainly by Montresor’s diabolical thoughts, feelings, and actions.

COMPLETE YOUR WORK ON A SEPARATE SHEET OF PAPER.

Ms. Muhlbaier

Language Arts